LARRY LULOFF AND JANET PERKINS LULOFF
Appellant,

V.

JAMES M. WALTERS and DIANE M. WALTERS
Appellee.

Luloffs request additional time to file the Appellant's opening brief. The reasoning for the request is that the filings that Luloffs have in their personal file do not match or correspond with the filings that the Luloffs' previous attorney Scott Green received from the District Court. Answers to the Discovery requests asked for by Luloffs and The Brokers A Real Estate Co., P.C., represented by Kristin Omvig of Crowley, Haughley, Hanson, Toole and Dietrich, PLLP were not filed with the District Court. Instead, only Notices of Services were substituted in the file of the District Court. Important content listings at the front of the file packet have numbers and descriptions but no contents.

Examples of missing information for the Court's consideration are enclosed.

Luloffs are more than willing to bring their personal records to the Supreme Court for comparison to the filed records submitted by the District Court. We will need several weeks to completely assemble the file that we have in dated order to present in person or by mail.

In a phone call with "Joanie" from your staff about the above situation, she suggested that we request an extension to the Notice of Filing request sent from your office on February 23, 2010.

Dated this 31st day of March, 2010

TO: Kathryn S. Syth
FROM: Larry and Janet Perkins Luloff
Reference Cause No. DV03-57

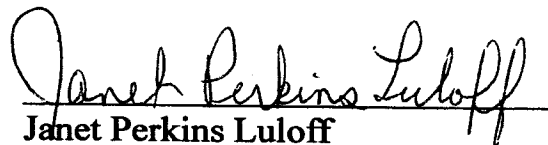

We've enclosed an order requested by the Montana Supreme Court for an extension of time to file the Appellate Brief.

The extra time will be used to compare and correlate the file from the Montana Twenty-Second Judicial District Court of Carbon County, the Defendants' files, the Appellants' files and the file from Judge Jones'
Columbus office of the Montana Twenty-Second Judicial District Court.
Defendants have offered to hand deliver the files to the Supreme Court in Helena to compare with the file they received from the Carbon County Clerk of Court.

Defendants' opinion is that this must be done in the interest of justice.

Dated this 31st day of March, 2010.
